QASource Presenting Free Webinar in September:
"Accelerate Your Automation with API Testing"

PLEASANTON, Calif., August 16, 2017 - QASource, one of the world's leading software QA services providers, announced today that it will present a free webinar entitled, "Accelerate Your Automation with API Testing." Presented by CEO Rajeev Rai, the online event will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 12.

Rai, who has more than 20 years' experience in software QA, will lead attendees through a thorough exploration of API testing that includes how to test APIs and derive benefits, trends and best practices, common myths and case studies, and how API testing can be your accelerator.

Individuals who attend the QASource webinar will receive a free takeaway checklist that will guide them as they begin or improve their API testing.

"With the myriad of software applications and the Internet of Things, API testing is becoming an increasingly critical component of testing. Despite its importance, many companies have difficulty implementing API testing correctly," said Rick Rampton, Head of Client Success at QASource. "This webinar builds on QASource's more-than 10 years' experience testing APIs and Rajeev's QA expertise in order to present solutions that can benefit the IT industry as a whole."
