

QASource Featured in The Technology Headlines' List of "Top 10 Leading QA/Testing Solution Providers"

PLEASANTON, California, September 27, 2017 - QASource, one of the world's leading software QA services providers, has been named one of the Top 10 Leading QA/Testing Solution Providers by The Technology Headlines, which published its September issue today.

"We are grateful to have been recognized by The Technology Headlines for our standing in the global technology market, for the second time in two months," said Rick Rampton, Head of Client Success at QASource. "We have made some key business acquisitions and been recognized by in analysts' research this summer, and we're proud that The Technology Headlines has taken notice."

QASource in August made news for its acquisition of MyCrowd QA, a crowdtesting company. The acquisition expands the suite of services QASource offers to include crowdsourced testing. QASource also delivers a short-term, pay-as-you-go offering through QAOnDemand, in addition to its core service of providing dedicated, offshore QA engineers to customer software development teams.

This summer, QASource was also listed as one of 25 major global players in the API test market in an analyst report published by MarketsandMarkets™, and one of the top global pure-play mobile application testing providers by Gartner. QASource CEO Rajeev Rai was featured in The Technology Headlines' August list of "Top 50 Indian Entrepreneurs in the U.S." and in TEST Magazine's list of "20 Leading Software Providers 2017."

QASource boasts a hybrid onsite/offshore model that combines offshore technical talent in India with U.S. management, and QA leads embedded in clients' engineering departments - enabling them to avoid the risks that often accompany a remote testing team.
